

End of Course Evaluation (taken online)

QUESTION_L_DESC

Presents the materials clearly and coherently
Gives examples to explain complicated concepts
Uses various teaching aids that suit the nature of the subject (e.g. transparencies, the computer, illustrations, models, etc.).
Encourages students to participate in various learning activities during lectures
Presents the lecture in an attractive and motivating style of learning
Encourages students to participate, ask questions and express opinions
Encourages students to think rather than accept and memorize information
Directs the students to additional sources of information
Uses various assessment techniques (e.g. projects, term papers, tests, assignments, etc.)
Marks tests, term papers, and projects fairly
Gives the students the opportunity to review their results of tests, projects and term papers
Treats the students respectfully and indiscriminately
Manages the lecture effectively
Is available in his\her office at the announced office hours to assist students
Abides punctually by the lecture's beginning and end
Informs students in advance of his/her absence if possible
I would like to take other courses with this teacher if I am allowed to